CONSTRUCTION OF MANDIBULAR PLANE

Scroll To See Two Illustrations

Line tangent to the posterior border of the ramus.

Constructed gonion: determined by bisecting the angle formed by a line tangent to the posterior border of the ramus and a line tangent to the inferior border of the body of the mandible. Constructed gonion landmark is the intersect point of the bisecting line and the outline of the mandible.

Line tangent to the inferior border of the body of the mandible.